I got saved several years ago so Jesus puts my whole life and thought process in a new perspective. At just 18 I shot a man in self defense. I panicked because he was after me for a fist fight I won against his brother. The mother of my children got shot too while she was pregnant with my youngest daughter. I have reconciled with my daughter whom I'm really close to. I'm trying raise money to get my first book published, (I wrote ten) so I can provide for my two daughters and grand-daughter. Also to raise funds for my appeal. Only recently have I learned the court didn't give me a competency hearing and if it's ruled I should've had one they'll have to overturn the case. Also they read in the wrong jury instructions. I have absolutely no knowledge of the law and after 21 going on 22 years I have never filed an appeal.

I've had multiple mental illness issues over the years where I've had mental inst. placements and being heavily medicated. Nothing helped until Jesus came and pulled me out of darkness and misery. I've had issues but I completed the Culinary Arts with Fox Valley Tech and have several job skills. I hope to begin selling books soon and want to open my own restaurant chain indeed if I ever get out. My favorite charity is Voice of The Martyrs - People all over the world get killed for claiming Jesus but I'm FREE to praise him out loud. The picture enclosed is my daughter Sigourney and my grand daughter McKenzie. I just want to help them the best I can. A time cut will help me greatly as well.
