Salutation. . . First and foremost, I extend my very best wishes towards everyone's well-being. Secondly, I hope that reading this dialogue you will detect my sincerity, inspiration and your invaluable worth to me (if) you're open and available to or interested in a mere friendship with someone (ME) who'll take the time to understand before I'm understood and cherish your every personal worth which could make the heart grow fonder through trust and dependability. I have an unquenchable thirst to meet someone whose beauty is beyond skin-deep and who'll allow pure ~~curiosity~~ curiosity to take place of what I may have to state, share and provide yet my offer is priceless and I would like the chance to prove I'm worthy enough to "Dance in the rain" with an imperfect person because often by seeing the dry brown petals on a rose, you soon-to appreciate more of the "vivid" red petals that are so beautiful. . .

Furthermore, about myself and my qualities, I'm loyal, trustworthy, out-spoken, charming, respectful, well-educated, very deep and seductively romantic. Personally, I'm very well outgoing. I enjoy any outdoor activities, traveling to exotic → destinations, long silent nightly talks with my better half. Also I have a diverse taste in culinary arts, I love music of All Kinds but I favor all of the 90's era of R+B! Overall I'm very - goal and family oriented as well. In deed, I'm a total sweetheart yet I live spontaneously and daring in good ways. However, I'm sensitive to women's feelings which allows me to respect and display unconditional love to her to the fullest and stand beside her whenever & however my service may be needed! Perhaps, I don't judge anyone but I truly believe in second chances even though I'm currently confined for a mistake that I'm in the process of overcoming so many people and family I've let down, therefore I would like to share with someone I can confide in my thoughts, dreams and unbreakable love. If by any chance your available & willing to walk where you haven't been, to find in me what you couldn't in others, then please allow me to grasp your hand and hold it close since the most beautiful things in the world can't be seen nor touched yet they must be felt with the heart. . . . It's believed that, sometimes it's good to go out on a limb because that's where you'll find the best fruits. Hopefully you could overlook my current position, do to the unhealthy decisions I've made which landed me here but please know (my past) has allowed me to become the strong minded man I am today.

Nevertheless, while I await upon my release back into society in "2018", as to my efforts in here I spend my time productively lifting weights, taking college courses for Practical Computers. I write effective letters and poems also. Without a doubt, I love to meet new positive individuals from different backgrounds who'll communicate openly and effectively.

So please, all I seek is to find a trusted friendship and or penpals so we can both share matters of the heart on soul together. I need nothing in return but loyalty and trust. If you share these similar desires then (please) feel free to write me upon reading this missive because the will of God would never take you to where the grace of God wont protect you. . . . Inclosing, if you want something you've never had before in life, then you have to do something you never done before to receive it, so release yourself from any doubts and let your ~~and~~ soul be free to receive the care, security and mutual love that I'm promising to give. . . . Until I can reach your heart again, I will be content with the smile I just placed upon your angelic face my dear friend. Have a blessed day and always walk in peace.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Always

"one like no other"

P/S - I'm willing to relocate and respond back to all received incoming letter.
(Please enclose photos) if have one.
