Lt. Jessie Schneider, 'Joseph Beahm is going to break my wrist -- tell him to stop.' " Beahm released him after he got to strip cage, but the cuff on his right wrist was on very tight: "It felt like my wrist was physically bleeding, but it was not, thank God." Was a card containing "a beautiful unique piece of art." Says C.O. Bogutski grabbed his wrist and handcuffed him. Bogutski and Lt. Wenzel started to lead him down back stairs. "Lt. Wenzel put his right hand on Hamlin's neck ... pushing against Hamlin's throat, saying 'You need to stop acting like a child.' " Hamlin told Wenzel to remove hand, "to which the Lt. responded by gripping the back of Hamlin's neck and pushing Hamlin face first against the wall that was behind Hamlin, causing Hamlin's bottom left lip to split open and chipping Hamlin's bottom left cuspid canine tooth, resulting in pain and sensitivity to hot and cold temperatures on Hamlin's lip and tooth for more than a week." Then Wenzel yelled "Take him down!" and Hamlin was slammed to concrete floor, banging his chin. "Lt. Wenzel then kneeled onto/into Hamlin's right arm, just above the elbow joint, with what felt to Hamlin like all of the Wenzel's body weight. Hamlin cried "You're going to break my arm!" to which Wenzel allegedly replied, "I don't care." Hamlin says he "never resisted in any way." COUNTY OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONMilwaukee

ALLEGED INCIDENT DATE3/6/2013

OFFICERS NAMEDJessie Schneider, Scott Ross, Mitchell Bille, Derek Schouten

ALLEGATION SUMMARYInmate Lindell, in letter to Swan, says Dehler was subjected to a cell extraction shortly after Marcus Childs, an inmate in a nearby cell, committed suicide, possibly to search the cell for notes about Childs' death. Lindell says Dehler was "beat, manhandled, tazed, as has happened to him many times." Dehler, in his letter to Swan, says he was left with 12 stitches. Dehler's aunt and uncle, Shirley and Frank Dehler, also allege abuse in a letter to Gov. Scott Walker dated 3/24/14.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ACCOUNTPollard records release, incident #16: Incident report from Lt. Schneider says Dehler refused to leave cell and a cell extraction team was assembled. Inmate refused to put hands through cell trap. Dehler was sprayed with "a short burst" of pepper spray. Schneider says Dehler was taken to strip cell and became "resistive and non-compliant." Reports contain redacted references to inmate receiving post-incident physical or mental health attention.

STATUSAt disciplinary hearing 4/9/13, Dehler was found to have "more likely than not" disobeyed staff orders and was sentenced to 180 days in segregation as discipline. Dehler did not attend the hearing

NOTESThe letter from Frank and Shirley Dehler drew a reply letter, dated May 1, 2014, from Cathy Jess, administrator of the DOC's Division of Adult Institutions. The letter states that "Wisconsin has zero tolerance for mistreatment of offenders in our correctional institutions." It goes on to say: "Regarding the incidents described in your letter, I assure you they have not been accurately described to you." And "Regarding the claim of him being injured, force was used as a result of his behavior; however, the situation has been inaccurately described to you. Inmate Dehler covered a camera of his cell with his own feces, which prevented staff from being able to visually confirm his well-being. Inmate Dehler also refused staff directives to be removed from the cell (so he and it could be cleaned). Due to the inability to gain compliance, the security supervisor made the decision to use force to remove him from his cell."

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ACCOUNTPollard records release, incident #5. Report by C.O. Moungey says that during meal tray pickup Dozier "reached out of the cell trap as if to grab me." OFFICERS NAMED Joseph Beahm, Jessie Schneider, Jesse Jones, Gabriel Umentum, Brian Kaphingst, Lukas Marwitz

(concentrated cayenne pepper). Says Beahm puts on spit mask on Dozier and takes him to shower stall, turns on water. "He then 'Chinese water tortures' me, forcing my head under the streaming water. ALLEGED INCIDENT DATE 10/18/13 to 10/21/13

OFFICERS NAMED Joseph Beahm, Jeffrey Gill, Jeremiah Larsen, Andrew Larson, Robert Rymarkiewicz, Jessie Schneider, Michael Lunde, Jason Wenzel, Daniel Vanderwerff

ALLEGATION SUMMARY Inmate Dozier, in lawsuit complaint, says his food tray got lodged in the cell trap door, and guards assumed Dozier was holding on to it; they pulled hard and tray went flying. They summoned other guards, saying Dozier had attempted to batter staff. Dozier was taken to strip search cell and strip searched. The next day he was not given a meal and was told he had refused it. To call attention to incident, said he was suicidal; was taken from cell and placed in cell which had "feces smeared all over the walls, floor and ceiling corner." Stood on sink in protest; threatened with taser. Was again strip searched and brought back to same cell, strapped to bed with four-point restraints. Kept complaining about feces on walls. That night, while strapped down, he urinated over himself, twice. Says he complained to C.O.'s Beahm and Gill, early the next morning, of Oct. 20, and they replied "too bad." At about 11 a.m. that day, used fingernails to cut wound into his own wrist; nurse Bayer was called. Was removed from cell at about 6:30 p.m. that day so it could be cleaned but feces remained. Not taken to regular cell until Oct. 21. Says he filed internal complaints over the incident, and they were rejected.

COUNTY OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONMilwaukee, Dane

ALLEGED INCIDENT DATE3/8/2013

OFFICERS NAMEDDonald Strahota, Brian Greff, Joseph Beahm, Jeremy Staniec, Jessie Schneider, Jeff Gill, Shane Waller, Cory Sabish.

ALLEGATION SUMMARYInmate McKinley, in lawsuit, alleges that staff provocations "culminated in an incident with (C.O) Staniec" -- elsewhere described as throwing feces. Says C.O. Beahm arrived and told McKinley, "I'm going to kill you." "You say you're going to kill me?" Beahm: "I'm going to hurt you real bad!" Incident is also described by McKinley in affidavit dated 5/16/13: He says he was mocked by C.O. Staniec, suggesting he was homosexual. "I became enraged and filled a milk carton with fecal matter." When cell door was opened, "I threw the contents of said milk carton on C.O. Staniec." Beahm arrives; Lt. Sabish, C.O. Gill and Sgt. Waller also present. McKinley complied with order to turn and be handcuffed from behind. "C.O. Beahm took hold of my right wrist and hand, he twisted that wrist to its limit and near breaking point." McKinley says he made no sound despite pain. Beahm "began to try to squeeze and crush my fingers as well as to wrench and try to break my right thumb and some of my fingers on that same hand." Pressed up against closed strip cage door and had clothes cut off and was strip searched. Beahm again began to "twist and fold my wrist as much as he could. ... At that point it ceased being excessive force and became use of torture." Says Beahm asked whether McKinley wanted to see a nurse, and when McKinley said yes, replied, "You refused!" McKinley says he was standing on the tips of his toes to relieve the pain. "I then lost control of my bowel and defecated which fell on the floor between my legs." "CO Beahm then twisted my wrist harder and lifted me up off the floor, slamming me chest and face first against the strip cage door. Then he released me and jumped up off of the floor and brought all of his approximately 230 lbs. weight down with his left boot with a kick-starting like motion (as if kick-starting a motorcycle) onto the shackle flange around my right ankle, that I then screamed as this opened up a two and a half inch gapping (sic) spiral laceration which drew blood and is located at the area of my right outer ankle bone." Then taken away "with my right wrist, hand and fingers continually being contorted and wrenched" for "at least 30 minutes of continuous agony." Says he suffered a dislocated or fractured right baby finger, dislocations or fractures to both joints of his right thumb, a severely sprained right hand, severe abrasions to right wrist, and abrasion to left ankle.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ACCOUNTDefendants' findings of fact submitted 2/19/14 specifically denies that C.O. Beahm inflicted pain on McKinley "for twenty continuous minutes" on 3/8/13 or any other time; also says that Beahm "did not jump in the air and come down with the heel of his boot on McKinley's ankle." Filing states, "Only the force necessary to control McKinley was used to insure his safety and the safety of those around him." Confirms that McKinley "released feces from his anus" during strip search. Was told to "stop pooping" and did. Pollard records release, incident # 8. Incident report says McKinley "dashed" Staniec with urine and feces and was taken to be strip searched. Redactions indicate that McKinley may have refused medical attention.

STATUSLawsuit is pending. Last court event as of 7/9/14 was 7/3/14 defense filing in response to McKinley discovery motion. McKinley was charged in connection with this incident with felony prisoner throw/expel bodily substances in Dodge County case 13 CF 133. That case is set to come to trial in August. At disciplinary hearing on 4/11/13, McKinley was found "more likely than not" to have battered a staff member by throwing fluid and sentenced to 360 days of segregation as discipline.

NOTESIncident was reported to Peggy Swan by inmate Nate Lindell and inmate Shirell Watkins. Watkins includes a signed and sworn affidavit dated 3/19/13 asserting: Was in cell 221 of health segregation complex. Says Laron McKinley informed him of a verbal confrontation he had just had. McKinley was in cell 205. At or around 10:49 a.m., Watkins sees Beahm arrive. He describes what happens: "I heard from my own ears correctional officer II Beam (sic) threaten, 'We're going to kill you for that!!!' I then asked loudly, 'Is Beam talking to McKinley?' and multiple prisoners replied, 'Yes,' 'Yeah' and 'Yup.'"

OFFICERS NAMEDAndrew Moungey, Jessie Schneider

ALLEGATION SUMMARYInmate Smith alleges in sworn affidavit that C.O Moungey and Lt. Schneider "battered and assaulted me by using excessive force causing me multiple injuries, harm, and suffering pain." Says Moungey "forcefully directed me" into a cell and began to "forcefully pull" on Smith's tether cuff, while his hands were cuffed behind his back. Smith cries: "Dude you're hurting my wrists!" Moungey pulls harder; restraints are removed, then Smith is able to put arms through trap. Say Moungey and another officer press down on his arms. Smith shouts, "You're breaking my arms!" Lt. Schneider arrives and the cell door is opened. Says Schneider "immediately wrapped his arms around my neck in a choke-hold gesture forcefully dropping all his weight onto my neck. I immediately hit the ground with Lt. Schneider still choking me. Lt. Schneider forcefully hit the right side of my face into the cell door frame. My left leg was stuck inside the cell while officer Moungey twisted my right ankle in a forceful way." Applied leg restraints, causing severe pain. Teeth on restraints bit into ankle as he was escorted to the strip cell area. There was blood on the cell door trap, and on the floor outside the cell, to which Sgt. Tritt stated, "Someone's bleeding bad!" Claimed injuries: "1) Bleeding wounds to all five right hand knuckles, 2) bleeding wounds on both my wrists, 3) severe bruises on both wrists, 4) bruise on left bicep, 5) swelling (sic) to both wrists, 6) three bleeding wounds on right shin, 7) blood blister on right index knuckle, 8) blood clog to tip of whole right index finger, 9) soreness around the throat, 10) soreness around my right eye." Smith denies ever resisting.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ACCOUNTLawsuit defendants deny all allegations in 9/6/13 answer to complaint. Moungey, in a 4/9/14 court filing, said Smith "violently pulled his hands into the cell, causing my left hand to be pinned between the cell trap and the long tether strap" and refused subsequent directives.STATUSLawsuit was dismissed 6/11/14 due to Smith's failure to respond to a defense motion, after he was reincarcerated. At disciplinary hearing on 1/24/13, Smith was found guilty and sentenced to 330 days in segregation. Pollard records release, incident #11. Record of testimony showed that Smith asked Moungey, "How did Smith receive more injuries than you?" The answer: "Question deemed irrelevant by the hearing officer."

NOTESSmith was rearrested after his release for a 4/30/14 incident in which he allegedly got into a gunfight on the streets of Milwaukee. He is facing 2 counts of 2nd-degree recklessly endangering safety and 1 count of discharge of a firearm in a school zone.

ALLEGATION SUMMARYInmate Lindell, in published letter, says shortly after he mailed inmate Tyrus Lee Cooper some legal filings, C.O. Moungey came to his cell to take him to recreation, slapped on the cuffs, "cutting the skin on the inside of my left wrist. Frieden was ordered to lift his left foot during strip search but "due to plaintiff's O.C.D. condition he lifted his right foot first, as he is compulsively to do." Frieden: "At which defendants Beahm and (Lt.) Schneider forcefully slammed plaintiff's face into the steel grated strip cage door, causing pain and bruising." Frieden was then ordered to kneel but could not due to restraints. Beahm "started to twist the plaintiff's wrists, he was unable to kneel, whereupon defendant (C.O.) Waller tased Plaintiff Frieden in the back, with a X26 Taser, as defendant Beahm yelled 'Stop resisting!' " Frieden "issued a series of loud piercing cries." Beahm and C.O. He was sentenced to 210 days in segregation as discipline, later amended to 180 days. At the hearing, Frieden denied having resisted. " Then he took this same finger and stuck it into Weeks' mouth. Also pulled patches of Weeks' braids out, "leaving a couple of bald spots in my hair." "Lastly, he took off my socks and bent my toes and fingers like he was trying to break them. They put me in an observation cell naked and told me I was on control status ... ALLEGED INCIDENT DATE 4/30/2013

OFFICERS NAMED Andrew Moungey, Jessie Schneider, R. Hintz, Joe Wells, M. Olson

ALLEGATION SUMMARY Inmate Lindell, in published letter, says two guards and a "white shirt" (supervisor) approached inmate Tyrus Cooper after he was in a fight with another inmate. They "roughly handcuffed Cooper behind his back. The guards dug the sharp edges of the cuffs into Cooper's wrists (a very common practice here) while the white shirt pulled Cooper's head back." Cooper called out to two passing inmates, "Y'all see this?" White shirt: "Shut the fuck up!" and "Take the fucker down." Lindell account: "The guards slammed Cooper to the ground and the white shirt kneed Cooper in Cooper's face, causing a knot on Cooper's eye, which became a black eye. Photos were later taken but (black eye was) blamed on Cooper's earlier fight." Says Cooper was taken to seg, where he was choked and had his face slammed into the strip cage door. Lt. Schneider threatened Cooper with a taser." Says C.O. Moungey inserted a finger into Cooper's "resisting buttocks." Waupun records contain interview request from Cooper complaining about the incident, saying "I was compliant. All I did was talk and I was slammed to the ground."

COUNTY OF CRIMINAL CONVICTION Milwaukee, Dodge

ALLEGED INCIDENT DATE 1/10/2013

OFFICERS NAMED Shane Waller, Jessie Schneider, Matthew Burns, Jeff Gill, Jeremy Staniec, Justen Kitzman

ALLEGATION SUMMARY Inmate Counts, in lawsuit complaint, alleges that he was asked by Lt. Schneider to put hands through trap, but refused. Schneider then directed staff to close shutters on other cell doors "to obscure any view from other inmates that may witness the events that were about to unfold." An extraction team arrived and took Counts to strip cell to be searched; then was taken to observation cell and a tether restraint applied; was ordered to kneel down but did not, because this made the tether cuff cut into his arm. According to complaint, "Plaintiff did not resist in any way." Said "I can't, I can't." Schneider threatened Counts with taser. Says staff yelled "kneel down" but he could not. Unnamed staff jumped on Counts' back, forcing left knee to ground, as the tether cuff cut into his arm. "Plaintiff began to scream in pain." While he screamed, staff pulled legs out from under him, adding to weight on cuff cutting. "Plaintiff was howling and screaming in pain." Says he was left with nerve damage to his hand and scars on his arm and both knees.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ACCOUNT Answer filed by defense on 3/14/14 denies all allegations. Says Counts "repeatedly refused directives" and "purposefully obstructed DOC personnel" from restraining him. Pollard records release, incident #12. Incident report by C.O. Gill says Counts refused to place hands in cell door trap, then claimed he was unable to kneel down because he was hooked to the door. "Counts ... was assisted to his knees." Reports contain redacted references to inmate receiving post-incident physical or mental health attention.

STATUS Lawsuit is pending; last court event as of 7/9/14 is Counts' 6/16/14 request for interrogatories. At disciplinary hearing on 1/29/13, Counts was found "more likely than not" to have disobeyed staff orders and sentenced to 180 days in segregation as discipline. NOTES
