An exception may occur in those cases where the file contains restricted material, such as a pre-sentence investigation (access restricted by Wisconsin Statutes, §972.15), or information obtained under an assurance of confidentiality. These documents will not be available to you.

If you have questions about the information in your file, contact your Institution Social Worker prior to your review.

- E. If you have been seen by a member of the ERRC in a face-face interview, or have been interviewed by telephone or video conference in the last twelve (12) months, a file review may be conducted at the discretion of the Commissioner.
- F. By statute, the judge/office of the judge and district attorney/office of the district attorney and victim's family (if requested) must be advised of your first consideration for parole/release, and they may request notification of subsequent parole/release reviews. This provides them an opportunity to express an opinion regarding your parole/release.
- C. The victim or a representative of the victim's family (if the victim is deceased), or the guardian of a victim under the age of eighteen (18), by statute, may be present at the review (Wisconsin Statute 304).
- H. You will be notified of the recommendation/decision and the reasons for it at the time of the review. If, for some reason this cannot be done at the time of your consideration, you will be notified of the decision in writing.
- I. Interviews are recorded. Transcripts of interviews are prepared only by order of a court, which has granted a petition for judicial review.

I acknowledge receipt of this "NOTICE OF EARNED RELEASE REVIEW COMMISSION CONSIDERATION".

NOTE: Although you are being notified that you have been scheduled for review by the Earned Release Review Commission, due to the large number of reviews scheduled and the number of Commissioners available, it is possible that you may not be seen. If review in the following month does not allow sufficient time for court notification and administration of paperwork, you will not be rescheduled.
