Dear Mr. Landreman:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Robert Taylor (RT) #181190 (Racine Correctional Institution, Jefferson East), whom I understand will be considered for parole in the near future.

I have known Robert for many years, first as a participant in a number of religious studies, programs and as member of the ongoing Marriage Seminar along with his wife Valerie. Then later, Robert was employed by the Chapel as the lead clerk when I was hired as chaplain at RCI. Robert was responsible for office support including; scheduling appointments, ordering supplies, attendance lists, and other chapel duties.

Robert has excellent communication skills. In addition, he is organized, reliable and able to work with a diverse group of clients and coworkers. Robert can work independently and is able to follow through to ensure that jobs get done. He is flexible and willing to work on any project that is assigned to him. Robert was quick to volunteer to assist in other areas of chapel operations. He also proved himself as trustworthy.

I believe that Robert would be an asset to the community. And, he will have a family support network after release. Based on all of that, I would ask that you strongly consider Robert for parole.

If you have any further questions with regard to his background or qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Blessings,
