

RECEIVED

JUN 2 1994

Patrick Donnelly : STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER
MADISON APPELLATE

Fascine Weaver was killed by a major drug dealer in the Wisconsin Rapids area, because she refused to pay him for cocaine. He was heard by many people to say he was going to torture and murder her in a horrible way, for revenge and as an example for his other customers. No one spoke us out of fear that he would have them killed also.

Not being in the drug culture, I do not know his name, but I know people who do. Among them are attorney Harold La Chapelle's daughter, Ann La Chapelle of Wisconsin Rapids, and her boyfriend, Dale Ekro. Many people who know Todd, and those who know this drug dealer, know Todd is the victim of a terrible injustice, and that he was not capable of such a crime. I cannot live with my conscience, and must speak up. Please investigate further and remove this dangerous man from our society by finding someone brave enough to testify against him. I wish I could. Thank