to all with love in your heart, I

1-29-17

We all are seeing and watching what is going on in the world. We are divided more than ever. The hate and discrimination is fueling it. We need to put away our differences and stand up for freedom and equality. Hate is very strong if we let it be. Trust me, hate destroys you from the inside out. No matter who you are, we all bleed, cry, smile, and laugh. We need to find the source of the hate and injustice and address it. We can not afford to keep our mouths shut. People around the world need a voice. Let's be that voice and stand up for all human beings. Criminals, women, children, Gays, and all other people are still people and we all deserve to be treated fairly. Stop being blinded by hate, power, and greed. Our kids depend on us. Love will set us free. Sure, we all might not get along, and we might have different views, but at the end of the day, we all want to see the next day. We want to live free from hate and discrimination. As a man that has lived the wrong way for the last 26 years, I want to show everyone that love, faith, and hope will always be the way to true happiness. We don't have to be best friends with each other, but we should stand up for each other. We can't half ass it! If we do, a lot of people will suffer and our kids future is at risk. If I have to struggle and endure wrong things to show people that we all need to come together, I will. We are our brothers and sisters keepers. We will do to others the way we want done to ourselves. Love and solidarity is the answer. Please pass this on to everyone you know, and even people you don't know. This is our lives that are at stake. Lives that matter. If we don't come together and stand together, we will never truly be free. Life is too short for us to just expect all the wrong in the world, if we in, we all win. if we fail, we will fail together. when i get out of Prison, im going to stay out by helping others stay out.

we will win together
