Request For Serious Release Consideration

Dear Peggy Swan,

Enclose is a letter I receive from Senator Lena C. Taylor 2 years ago. Two month from now I'll be 70 years old. I don't want to die in prison. I would like to be added to your list. And maybe God will bless me and send me home.

Thanks for your time.

God Bless You

Verdell D. Miles

Dear Mr. Verdell Miles,

Our office has been reviewing cases from individuals who have reached out to our office or who had been referred to our office related to ongoing parole concerns. We are contacting you in regards to this issue. Senator Taylor is committed to matters surrounding the justice system and has hope to resolve the previous disconnect that has existed within the correctional system over recent years by addressing it in this current State budget season. There has been changes in the parole system of Wisconsin, making it imperative to send in the needed information as soon as possible.

In order for our office to address the parole problems that exist within the DOC, we need to hear from you about your personal concerns that has hindered you from obtaining parole over the years. We have included a form for you to complete and request that you return it within (10) ten days of the date of this letter. PLEASE DO NOT ATTACH ANY OTHER CORRESPONDENCE then what is being requested. Please fill out the Offender Profile Sheet that is attached to this letter, as well as the Legislative Address Form. We would also like a copy of your most recent parole plan and the last parole decision letter you have received. Once we review all correspondence, we will respond to each person individually. With the large number of individuals our office needs to contact, it may take up to 45 days or more to hear from us. If you have any other concerns, please send them in separate correspondence.

Thank you for the opportunity to address these issues. Please make copies of the Standard Legislative Address Form to use and send with any other future correspondence. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Here to Serve,

Revelle Williams

Summarize Issue or Concern (please limit to space provided):

worried that I'll never make parole. The judge set's a date, where he or she feels you've done enough or almost enough time for punishment. Then after doing it, the parole board keep saying, you haven't done enough time, or unreasonable risk to the public, even when inmates are working on the streets, the parole Board still says unreasonable risk to public
