Hayes Jackson, has now been incarcerated for 24 plus years and has a parole hearing coming up in October 2019 he will see parole for the first time. Mr. Jackson has completed his H.S.E.D. (participated in programs such as Anger: Creating new choices, Turning point 3 "The power of consequences"; Turning point 2, Turning point 1, Coping skills 1 and 2; In cell Anger programs; Rational Emotive - Therapy; C.G.I.P phase 1 Interactive Journaling; Anger management Group; And Victim Restorative Justice program.

Hayes, has grown up from his childish ways into a man who deserves a 2nd chance into the community. Yes he has made a bad decision in his life and has changed. He is not the same person who was 16 years old. Hayes has apologies to the people he has hurt and take responsibility, and accountability for the pain he's caused. It's time to let Hayes Jackson go home to his loved ones. If you would like to know more of Hayes plans you may contact him at the address below. Let's let Hayes Jackson out.

Sincerely,
