OK I got your email! They call him EJ I Am working on getting more definite info. on Thursday July 30th he had a medical emergency on the Shavers around 7:30-8:00 P.M. He had told Staff and HSO staff he wasn't feeling well as the story goes it was said he may have had a Blood clot in his foot that traveled to his heart.

During the 6:00 Am Court Staff failed to wake him for Standing Court. Around 7:00 Am Breakfast was being passed out by the tier Tenders and he failed to wake up. At that time they notified Staff. after HSO the white shirt the ambulance and all that stuff came they carried him past our cells in a black Trap with handles after seeing the ambulance people not moving fast it was clear what was going on. As they were waiting for the coroner we could clearly hear Staff laughing and joking. Bogus even though we are doing time were still Human beings and if we dont have loved ones Jesus Loves us. I look At my issues and they are small potatoes to what really is going on in this place. I complain about my diabetes and feet and how I cant afford a pair of shoes but im still breathing and fighting to stay that way. OK his real name is ERIC JOHNSON # 222 Better known to those around him as EJ

I appreciate you caring enough to look into this as I know his loved ones will as well. God Bless you Respectively,
